

DECREE OF THE DICASTERY FOR THE DOCTRINE OF THE FAITH

Notwithstanding the warnings addressed to the Superior General of the Society of Saint Pius X, Bishop Alfonso de Galarreta, having committed an act of a schismatic nature by means of the episcopal consecration of four priests, without a pontifical mandate and against the will of the Supreme Pontiff, has incurred ipso facto the penalties provided for by can. 1387 and can. 1364 § 1 CIC 2021. I therefore declare for all juridical purposes that both the aforementioned Bishop Alfonso de Galarreta and Pascal Schreiber, Michael Goldade, Michel Poinset de Sivry, and Marc Hanappier have incurred ipso facto the latae sententiae excommunication reserved to the Apostolic See. I further declare that Bishop Bernard Fellay, having directly participated in the liturgical celebration as co-consecrator, and having thereby publicly adhered to the schismatic act, has incurred the latae sententiae excommunication provided for by can. 1364 § 1 CIC 2021. Clerics and lay faithful are warned not to adhere to the schism of the Society of Saint Pius X, as they would thereby incur ipso facto the penalty of latae sententiae excommunication.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

1. The sacred ministers belonging to the Society of Saint Pius X are in schism and must therefore be considered schismatics (cf. Ecclesia Dei, 5c; Pontifical Council for Legislative Texts, Explanatory Note on the excommunication for schism incurred by adherents of the movement of Bishop Marcel Lefebvre, 24.08.1996, 5–6), and are subject to the excommunication provided for by law (can. 1364 § 1 CIC).

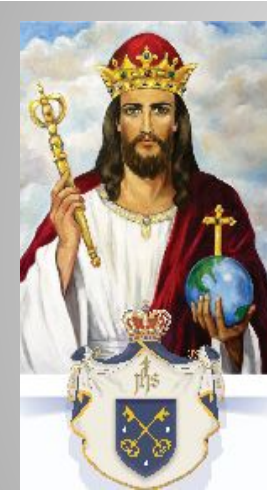

2. With regard to the lay faithful, those who formally adhere to the Society of Saint Pius X under the conditions established in the Explanatory Note of the Pontifical Council for Legislative Texts of 1996 (cf. ibid., 7) — still in force, and hereby adopted by this Dicastery — are to be considered schismatics and excommunicated.

3. The holy People of God is hereby informed that the sacred ministers of the Society of Saint Pius X administer the sacraments illicitly, and that the sacrament of penance administered by them and the marriages they assist at are invalid.

The Church, as a devoted mother, will receive with sincere affection and eager care all those who desire to return to full communion. The Apostolic Nuncios will have at their disposal the procedures that Ordinaries may employ in the various cases.

Finally, all the faithful are exhorted to remain firm in communion with the Roman Pontiff, with the bishops in communion with him, and with the whole Church (cf. Lumen Gentium, 22; can. 751 CIC), and to refrain from participating in the celebrations and activities promoted by the aforementioned Society of Saint Pius X.

“...Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison. And behold an angel of the Lord stood by him: and a light shined in the room: and he striking Peter on the side, raised him up, saying: Arise quickly. And the chains fell off from his hands.” - Acts 12:6-7

“If all the prayers of loving hearts from the beginning of the world, and all the seraphic worship of the thrones and principalities of heaven, and the burning devotion and love of the Virgin Mother of God, and the voices of the all creatures of heaven and earth were offered up in one universal and harmonious act of praise and adoration, they would not equal or even approach in value and efficacy the infinite worth of a SINGLE MASS.”

Thursday July 9th after the 9:00 am Mass, there will be a welcome reception for Fr. Daniels.

We pray for the bishops and priests of the Society of St. Pius X, as well as the laity who attend their chapels. As is well known, the founders of the Fraternity of St. Peter came from the Society and are grateful for many aspects of their priestly formation in the seminary in Ecône. It was with great sorrow that they broke with Archbishop Lefebvre and the Society after the 1988 consecrations of the 4 bishops, while at the same time being eternally grateful to Pope St. John Paul II for being so generously welcomed back into ecclesial communion. Let us remember that these canonical penalties (specifically excommunication) announced by the Holy See are not intended as expressions of hostility or rejection, but as medicinal measures that reflect the seriousness of the offense and are ordered toward repentance, healing, and the eventual restoration of communion. We thank the Holy Father for this much needed clarification, confirming in the external forum the penalties already incurred in the internal forum, latae sententiae. The decrees of the Holy See are very clear and need little explanation, but I included the essential parts on the back of the bulletin. Let’s remember that the ultimate judgment of these matters can only come from the Holy See, and their judgment has been consistent since 1988. To quote St. Augustine: “Roma locuta, causa finita est” (Rome has spoken, the case is closed); and “There is nothing more grave than the sacrilege of schism: there is never a legitimate necessity to break unity”

Verbum Supernum Prodiens
 During Communion the choir sings the Eucharistic hymn Verbum Supernum Prodiens. Written by St. Thomas Aquinas for Lauds of Corpus Christi, the last two stanzas are well known as the Benediction hymn O Salutaris Hostia. For the entrance hymn we sing the English translation, The Word Descending from Above, SEC 901.
